SWAN Executive Director Report

September 20, 2024

Personnel changes

Our search to fill the Bibliographic Services Consultant position has been completed. We have hired Lucas McKeever who will start his position on September 23rd. Lucas was the recipient of the ILA

Technical Services Award in 2018 and has worked at Downers Grove and Elmwood Park Public Libraries.

The position description of Network Administrator has been revised and submitted to HR Source for benchmarking and grading. We have additionally obtained a full benchmarking analysis quote from HR Source for the entire organization, which has not been done in full since 2012. We anticipate completing the full benchmarking project in early 2025.

Expo 2024

The SWAN Expo for this year concluded with 52 attending libraries and a total of 227 staff. We held 21 sessions during the day which included three roundtable group discussions. Overall feedback on the conference is below, along with comments and how to improve Expo for next year.

| The "From Confusion to Confidence" session was helpful as well as engaging. Also really liked the self-care |

| The expansion of session topics. Great that you went beyond just in-house directly related to SWAN topics.                 |
| I was able to send staff other than Tech Services and Circulation and they got something out of it!                        |

| Be a Workflows Detective was enlightening in showing me new routes to find information about tricky                        |
| reference scenarios, and the MobileStaff consultation was a cool way to educate library staff about                        |
| emerging technology in the library field.  |
| All sessions were informative. Some of the info was beyond my need to know, but I was able to get a bigger                 |
| picture of how things operate at the library.  |

| I really enjoyed the library newcomers & the immigrant experience session. It was wonderful to hear the                    |
| ways that CPL had adapted to better assist and accommodate new migrants in Chicago, and to consider                        |
| how we could work to better assist migrants in our own libraries.  |
| My favorite presentation by far was "Basic copyright for library staff," though "Local records management"                 |
| was also useful (if a little dry). I enjoyed the "SWAN in 2075" presentation and liked learning more about                 |
| how SWAN works generally, plus its history and the "state of the union" updates.   |
| Troy S. gave such a compelling presentation, and his presentation style was very effective from the first                  |
| moment he spoke and set the scene with a story. He knew how to relate to the audience in not necessarily                   |
| giving a full-fledged training, but a sufficient amount of pointers to help us in our workplaces. While I didn't           |
| attend the Q&A breakout sessions, I'm glad that those sessions were offered. I also liked hearing Aaron                    |
| Skog share the history of SWAN.  And I was glad to hear from the CPI, stoff shout what they did to support the newscamers. |
| And I was glad to hear from the CPL staff about what they did to support the newcomers.                                    |
| Overall, it was a very good event, and I liked coming for the second consecutive year. It was a nice chance                |
| I loved hearing the last session I attended where they talked about how CPL is helping migrants. It made                   |
| me realize that there is always more we can do to help.  |

| BLUEcloud Analytics basics - Not everyone was able to follow along hands-on because there were too             |
| many people on the training login, but I learned how to run reports, and have already put that knowledge to    |
| use to help me weed! More hands-on training sessions like this would be excellent!                             |
| The hands on workshops were most beneficial!   |
| I really enjoyed the keynote speaker. The speaker did a great job of communicating in an engaging and          |
| informative way. I also really enjoyed the "collection management: weeding storage, renovations" session,      |
| as my library is planning to remodel in the next year or two. It is always good to have the opportunity to     |
| network with other library staff and SWAN staff. All the presenters did a great job!                           |
| linetwork with other library stair and SWAN stair. All the presenters did a great job:                         |
| I specifically came to learn about local records management and did get a lot out of that session.             |
| I really enjoyed the NAMI sessions and learning more about SWAN in general.                                    |

| -The keynote speaker was very engaging and addressed important issues with practical solutions.                |
| -Being hands on in the computer lab was helpful.   |
| -I liked the variety of sessions.  |
| Hearing fellow librarians offer solid advice and best practices based on years of experience.                  |
| The copyright session was extremely helpful! A lot of important information in a clear and understandable      |
| presentation.  |
| I think it was cool to see the past of SWAN. I also thought it was a fun/funny/uplifting presentation of what  |
| the future could look like for SWAN. The circulation best practices was a lot of stuff we already knew and     |
| · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·  |
| practiced at our library but it was good for hopefully everyone to get on the same page. I think the self care |
| was a nice class due to the learning about different types of rest and how to engage in each one as well as    |
| learning the stressors. I also think the difficult service scenario class was helpful to remember we don't     |
| have to fight with patrons on everything even if it is likely the patron did the damage. It's not worth losing |
| SWAN update, SWAN history. Also, "Utilizing the Illinois Digital Archives."                                    |

| What did you find most helpful or valuable from attending?   |
|--|
| School partnerships was a really good session. I liked how different libraries are approaching schools and families.   |
| I thought even thing were good. I was shooked at how interesting the level records management  |
| I thought everything was good. I was shocked at how interesting the local records management presentation was, but maybe that says more about me than anything else.   |
| I must also say the Conan bit was great! I would have expected the jokes to be "just okay", but they were all really funny, so kudos to the writers (and presenters)!  |
| Knowing that we are part something that is so large and every expanding was very encouraging. Seeing that many support systems are available if you are in need of them was cool.                            |
| Copyright session was most informative. Circulation information was mostly already known, with a few small updates in best practices   |
| Meeting other Swan library workers, learning about topics I don't normally see sessions about (copyright, records, bluecloud).   |
| I enjoyed that certain sessions were repeated so I didn't have to miss out. The "Aspen for Library Staff" was very helpful to me, and I can't wait to show patrons some of the options I didn't know we had. |
| Troy's presentation was very beneficial and I appreciated that he included salient skills that library personnel can implement with patrons. His speech was very engaging.                                   |
| That I can set up reports to run automatically in bluecloud. A timesaver and friendly reminder all in one.   |
| meeting people at different SWAN libraries and SWAN staff  |
| Learning to use BCA.   |
| Library newcomers segment was interesting.The keynote speaker was good, too.   |
| After the MobileStaff demo on the iPad, I felt more confident ordering a new Socket Mobile scanner.  |

| What did you find most helpful or valuable from attending?   |
|--|
| BCA training-I wish I went to both!  |
| I especially enjoyed the NAMI speaker and round table sessions. I loved the session "In the Year 2075: We        |
| Predict the Future of SWAN". Too bad I won't be around in 2075:(.  |
| I really enjoyed the entire day and would love for our entire staff to attend!                                   |
| Functual and organized speakers and staff . Generous continuous serving of coffee , snacks and drink .           |
| Interesting topic and the round the table difficult scenarios is my favorite and share experiences and           |
| learning the technique to deal with .  |
| I enjoyed the information provided from Troy Siewert. I enjoyed the hr round table.                              |
| I enjoyed the - Be a Workflows detective. It was informative and great presenters. But, before we could          |
| finish the program the time was up. There was a lot of confusion in the beginning regarding computers.           |
| Personally I thought setting up the computers would have been helpful. A couple of the computers weren't         |
| working either.  |
| I hoped that we could at least have been given handouts with the mysteries that we missed.                       |
| School partnerships: Issuing Student Cards was a very informative session and I plan to talk to my director      |
| and assistant director to see if this is anything we have looked into previously.                                |
| Local records management. I've been to a workshop before, but this one was more specific and it was very         |
| well presented. I don't know if it was helpful or valuable, except as a stress reliever, but 2075: The Future of |
| Swan was the high point of the day for me. It was definitely a great way to end the day.                         |
| From Confusion to Confidence: Improving Mental Health Crisis Intervention - He was a very good speaker.          |
| I enjoyed the Work Flows Detective Session.  |
| I found "The From Confusion to Confidence", "Crisis Plans", and "Library newcomers & the immigrant               |
| experience" sessions to be the most interesting and valuable.  |
| I enjoy Candace Fisher presentation. It brough insight as a trustee and library manager, on how well my          |
| home and work library are prepared for unexpected emergencies.   |

| What did you find most helpful or valuable from attending?  |
|---|
| Mental Health Crisis  |
| The Mental Health Crisis Intervention was very informative and helpful, and gave me a new perspective on              |
| how to handle potential situations in the library.  |
| I found the workflows detective session valuable.   |
| Keynote was amazing. Feel like I could maybe use that approach when dealing with teenagers too. CPL is                |
| doing such amazing things for the migrants and their presentation was interesting.                                    |
| I thought the mental health crisis intervention was the most outstanding presentation of the day.                     |
| I can't choose just one. I think for me that it's a tie between Improving Mental Health Crisis Intervention and       |
| Basic Copyright for Staff, with Local Records Management in close behind.   |
| I really enjoyed the Local Record Management presentation!! Wish it was more time to hear more!                       |

| I thought that the Keynote shared the most helpful and valuable information, tip and tools to better serve            |
| our patrons and anyone we encounter who is dealing with mental health. I made a suggestion to our                     |

| I thought the keynote with NAMI was fantastic. Excellent speaker with some great things to keep in mind               |

What did you find most helpful or valuable from attending?

The opening speaker was very interesting. The topic was something that most libraries deal with on a daily basis in one form or another.

I think opportunities to meet and speak with folks from other libraries are really valuable! Especially when your position requires you to connect with them in other contexts (circ staff across libraries needing to collaborate bc of shared patrons or items). I like that it's not just vendors trying to sell services and products to attendees. I will share information from the key note speaker with my library staff.

Learning the history and future of SWAN; networking with other SWAN employees.

The opener "Confusion to Confidence" was helpful because it provided specific things we can do to help a patron in crisis.

I thought Troy Siewert's presentation was useful, just too long. I find that I am becoming shorter and shorter of attention span these days, so anything over a half hour and I can't remain focused unless the speaker is REALLY engaging. I feel like this is a result of our TikTok society, but true nonetheless. I'd rather attend several shorter sessions than one or two longer ones.

Paper handouts, discussions.

The sessions on BLUECloud Analystics were helpful in my growth in understanding that resource.

The NAMI speaker was excellent. I enjoyed learning more about SWAN and got some good tips for using Aspen for Staff

I like finding out what changes SWAN is making and what we may have missed in the past. I also like The NAMI presentation.

Networking with colleagues and getting a uniform sense of services provided.

SWAN Board meeting Exhibit pg. 39 of 78 September 20, 2024

What suggestions do you have to improve SWAN Expo? The smaller rooms were too small for some of the sessions. I wasn't able to go to two of the sessions that I would have liked because the room was full.

Topics were good for Tech and Circ staff. Less helpful for reference/librarian staff.

I thought everything was run well. The sessions were not too long and were informative.

More seats in the computer lab for training sessions. The smaller rooms were just too small for the number of people who wanted to attend the sessions.

MessageBee to be able to present the regarding patron notices and notifications.

I only attended the circ things, but I think the sessions were very beginner orientated. I think what needed to be had was notes whether something was beginner, intermediate, expert, when applicable. A lot of attendees have 5, 10, 15+ years of experience and they know how the library world works. The library is always changing, and that's fine, but having some things that would be geared towards people who've had lots of experience would be ideal

More in depth training

First I just wanted to give a shout out to the amazing breakfast and lunch provided. Everything was so organized and delicious, including all the drinks! Thank you for that and all the SWAN swag in the lobby as well .. :)

Some of the sessions got very full fast and there were no more seats in the computer labs/classrooms, so maybe for the more popular sessions have it in a bigger conference room instead of a classroom so more people could attend those specific sessions!

Roundtables are great as a concept, but the facilitators can make or break the success of the session. I wanted more out of the difficult customer service session. Most of the time was spent sharing difficult situations, but we ran out of time without getting to dive into the HOW to deal with the situations.

Maybe gauging interest on the sessions beforehand, so rooms and timing can be planned accordingly.

Perhaps make classes a little shorter, so you can attend more.

Staff leading the BLUEcloud Analytics basics session were under prepared. They might have detailed knowledge of the system, but they didn't take into account what might happen when more than 20 people tried to log into the same account. They also made assumptions that everyone in the room understood their abbreviations and shortcut names and also had the same skills of navigation. This was a basics session after all, and there was nothing basic discussed. I realize there was less than an hour for the session, but more thought should have gone into it. Such as: what is BCA, who uses it, examples of questions that it will answer, detailed steps on how to build the report, and

More and larger areas for technology workshops. They filled up quickly and many people had to leave due to lack of space.

Maybe have more sessions for "beginners"?

Have computers logged into and ready to use so that a large portion of the class isn't used by just trying to use the tools. For aspen make sure the presentation is scheduled out to address everything they promise.

Larger labs

I really appreciated the larger number of sessions this year. I would like if there were other vegetarian options available for lunches.

The keynote presentation was a little rough and ready, the speaker presented well but some of the information provided (especially the acronyms that didn't always match with the meaning) was a bit vague. I think there possibly are ways someone with a background in law enforcement can elucidate their process to a library audience, but I do not want to implement the same approach in my work per se—law enforcement and librarianship are just apples and oranges.

Meanwhile, I think a little more information about the content of the presentations would be helpful. I attended the "Weeding, storage, renovations" panel hoping for more analysis of physical storage concerns, possibly with

First of all, the breakfast foods were great, and it was good that breakfast was available because I had to leave my home base early to get an oil change done on my vehicle before the expo, so I had limited time to eat before arriving. The lunch options were okay, but I had to remove the red onions from my salad since I don't care for them. I would have had the turkey sandwich, but I don't like cheese on sandwiches, and I wanted to avoid having to throw it out. Maybe that sandwich could be an option for next year without cheese. Furthermore, I think it would work fine to separate the chips and cookies from all the boxed lunch options and then people could take what they want, similar to what was done with the salads, and I skipped the chips and cookies. There were great beverage options, and I feel having LaCroix sparkling waters, or something similar, as an option would be great.

I also feel that rectangular tables would be better in the large conference rooms, rather than the round tables, so people don't have to turn around and face away from the table for the presentations, especially since most of our time is spent facing presenters anyway.

It was such a nice day outside, and I wish there were more options for outdoor seating to have lunch. Maybe there's a possibility for next year, if the weather is as nice, to have the venue staff set up tables outside.

I was expecting a little more structure to the Round Table about self-care, but I was also glad it had an open-ended format so that we could talk freely.

Also in this survey, the second option for "Which sessions did you attend?" is "From Confusion to Confidence: I think having people sign up for the sessions they want to attend would help greatly. It was a bummer that I couldn't go to the one I initially wanted, but then my backup was canceled, and we ended up back downstairs for the Library newcomers & the immigrant experience.

| The Crisis Plans from an HR Perspective was a disappointing session. The presenter didn't actually go through the contents of a plan, rather, talked about the variety of emergencies there may be and how we need buy-in. Those are both important points, but they did not discuss the actual content of the plans or how anything was coming from an HR perspective. It would've been helpful to have more tangible takeaways- such as example plans, common |

| Don't really have any. Breakfast was great, as well as a nice lunch. Nice building to be in. Like the inflatable swans and photo booth. And the goodie bag!   |
| Make Expo two days, or schedule twice per year. There is a lot of information that could be added. Also, a mid-afternoon coffee break, like at various conferences I attended, would be much appreciated!   |

| None - the Expo was really well done! It was very targeted, so I walked away with a lot of new information that I could start using right away.   |
| I would suggest having people pick the sessions they would like to attend ahead of time so the facilitator can prepare better. Especially if the session involves using a computer.   |
| Could probably have combined BCA basics & tec svcs into one. Also, the basics segment definitely did not need to be in a computer lab.  |

| Ther was one session I was disappointed with. I attended the: Round Table: How to Deal with Difficult Service          |
| Scenarios. Unfortunately, this session didn't offer solutions to situations that were shared by individuals. When the  |
| initial question was asked by the presenter, the responses were more of complaints about their encounters with         |
| patrons, what they won't do on their job and how they are not paid to handle some situations. these responses were     |
| given by one individual who monopolized the time for over 25 minutes. we only had 45 minutes, and she spoke for 15     |
| then had a 10-minute dialogue with another individual. During this time, I was hoping that the conversation and        |
| focus on the topic would be re-directed so that we could have gained helpful tools and/or techniques to take back to   |
| our library. There was a great deal of conversations about patrons but no one shared how they dealt with the difficult |
| situations with results that would be helpful to anyone who should encounter a difficult patron. I know this was a     |
| round table session, but I think it would have been a great idea to have a slide show presentation with helpful tools  |
| and techniques and even a few mock scenarios of a encounter with a difficult patron and then have the group            |
| discuss their thought on how they would handle it. I think this might help with re-directing a conversation that took  |
| The seminars were a bit short. For example, in the computer lab Workflows Detective class, it took quite a while to    |
| get everyone logged into the computers and we were really only able to complete 30 minutes of the seminar they had     |
| prepared. I would have loved to see this go much more in depth.  |

What suggestions do you have to improve SWAN Expo?

Please have the presenters practice their session ahead of time. The Aspen for library staff session was interesting, but the presenter only covered maybe half of the topics because they ran way behind/talked too much. If they needed more time, maybe break it into two sessions?

Also, I really wanted to attend the copyright session, but it was offered at the same time as the BLUEcloud Analytics basics class. Having the majority of the general/basics classes in the first session was very challenging/counterproductive since attendees could only choose one session to attend. Please space out these general/basics classes or offer more repeated sessions and perhaps a forth block in the day with a shorter lunch

I feel it moves along very well.

Too many things I wanted to see, I had to pick and choose. It's a good problem. If there was some way to encourage mingling and for folks to talk to others and not just sit and eat with their library, I would like that. A la the CPL presentation, I think it would be fun to occasionally hear from other nonSWAN libraries when they're doing something particularly fun, interesting, successful.

none. it was good just like it is

When you have computer lessons, make sure all of the computers are logged in already. And if you state that there will be a topic with resolutions, please provide time to talk about the resolutions and don't let attendees simply vent the entire time.

See above - more BCA/WorkFlows/Aspen sessions; shorter sessions and/or repeat some of them so you can have access to more of them. I'd have gone to the staff in-service session, but there was something else at the same time I wanted to attend more.

Have a MessageBee session again to go over the how-to's, and include library examples like the session from last year. That session helped tremendously! Also, would love to have more SWAN swag if it's possible- my suggestion would be a SWAN-branded folder to hold all of the papers given at the sessions.

Making sure there are enough trainer login spots for BLUECloud Analytics for everyone before the class starts would keep time from being wasted at the beginning of the session.

I think a lot of people were not able to attend the programs in the computer labs that wanted to attend. If possible, perhaps having two simultaneous sessions in two labs would help.

Also, I don't know if anything can be done about this, but I would have liked one more slot to attend programs. I attended three, but would have liked to attend more. Great program!

What suggestions do you have to improve SWAN Expo?

When there are round tables, it might be helpful to have everyone sit closer together and have some guidelines about how much a particular person can talk. The round table I attended was fine, but some other staff said a round table they attended became mostly a conversation between two people.

For hands on training/learning. Either reserving larger rooms with pcs or encourage members to bring their own and using the downstairs conference spaces A, B, or C to have more engagement.

Update on Activities

Aspen Discovery Governance

Aspen Discovery is a library open-source project which means no company or person "owns" the software. This is a different model from the typical company that provides proprietary software, which is owned in perpetuity by the company and is leased/subscribed to the library.

Currently, SWAN has a contract with ByWater Solutions for Aspen hosting and support of Aspen Discovery. It is possible to contract with another support company for hosting and support. Just recently a new company Grove For Libraries was formed to provide software development to libraries seeking new features and functions within Aspen.

The community of libraries and support vendors is interested in creating an independent nonprofit organization to support the project. This would entail creating a legal entity and governance structure, which once complete, could hold funds on behalf of the community. This arrangement is not unlike other library software user groups such as COSUGI (Customers of SirsiDynix User Group), or IUG (Innovative User Group) which are independent from the company's proprietary software. One of the important benefits of having this entity established is it could apply for IMLS grants, which ByWater Solutions is not able to do on behalf of Aspen Discovery.

As part of my professional goals for this year, I noted that I would participate in this Aspen governance process. I have arranged to present a topic at the September Aspen Community meeting to chair the task force responsible for creating a governance structure. This will take place over the next six months.

Board Considerations

Appointment of RAILS Consortia Committee representative

Presently, the SWAN representative is Aaron Skog, and the alternate representative is an open seat. Attending the meeting for the voting representative is in person, and the alternate representative can attend via a live stream remotely.

The next RAILS Consortia Committee is Monday, October 21, 2024 at 10:00 a.m. The committee archive can be found on the RAILS site.

The August 23, 2024 RAILS Board meeting included an overview of the LLSAPs, which is recorded and posted on the RAILS YouTube channel. The meeting packet included the annual reports from the six LLSAPs. The board discussion about the LLSAPs is worth viewing (45:16).

Aspen Users (7/9/2024)

The Aspen Users group discussed the missing covers report, issues with Libby title availability that has been experienced both in Aspen and the native Libby app, PressReader integration, and StackMap. The group chairs also met separately to discuss upcoming changes to the group, including an inperson meeting in 2025.

Book Club Users (7/10/2024)

It was a smaller than usual Book Club Users Group that met on 7/10 due, largely, to many folks being on vacation and Summer Reading being in full swing. Veteran co-chairs, Lauren Maxwell (GVD) and Nancy Rooney (DGS) moved a small, but appreciative group of attendees through a robust agenda of topics ranging from the perennial; like keeping discussions from wandering too far afield or into dangerous territory. To the timely, like applying DEI principles to title selection and question phrasing.

Cataloging Advisory (7/11/2024)

Cynthia provided updates from the In-Person cataloging meeting on May 14, 2024. This included volume/book series numbering clean-up and creating documentation for the consistency with travel titles. Furthermore, discussion was held on the content for the documentation on the responsibilities of Cataloging Libraries. This is a collaborative document that sets clear expectations of what Cataloging Libraries should be doing when they agreed to become a cataloging library.

Circulation Advisory (7/17/2024)

Crystal lead a discussion on the annual review of courses in the learning management system. The group also discussed the circulation mentor program and assisted in developing the WorkFlows sessions for SWAN Expo.

Major Projects & Research

Aspen Discovery

Aspen release 24.07 and 24.08 included accessibility updates for browse categories and bug fixes, including a SWAN-requested fix for an issue with tabbed spotlights.

ByWater Solutions is in the process of redefining how they support Aspen Discovery, shifting their focus to supporting the stability of Aspen and development of bug fixes. Going forward, the development of new features and enhancements will require sponsorship outside of support fees. Due to the nature of open source, we will still see enhancements that have broad appeal throughout the community, and we will still receive enhancements that other organizations have sponsored. However, SWAN-specific and Symphony-specific enhancements will likely need additional funding. The upcoming 24.09 release includes sponsored development from the Minuteman Library Network for the development of Sierra APIs to support self-check through the LiDA app.

Tara Wood has joined the Community Tool Working Group, which will identify the platform used to track issues and enhancements across the Aspen Community and allow Aspen libraries to better collaborate. Features that the group is looking for in a tool include the abilities to vote for enhancements, search issues across organizations, and track development progress.

At the Aspen Users group meeting, there were some questions if additional electronic content can be added to Aspen, specifically, PressReader. PressReader is a digital platform that enables subscribers to access over 7,000 of the world's top publications. Access to content is simultaneous, unlimited use. Currently, PressReader has an app and website for access, but they also have MARC records. Olivia has added those records in Aspen to widen the discoverability of these digital magazines and newspapers.

Ticketing System Migration

For the past two months, SWAN staff have been working closely with a staff member from an organization called Excalibur Data Systems, which provides support for the Halo platform in the United States. This is part of our setup costs for the HaloITSM platform we will be rolling out as our new helpdesk solution.

Completed sets in the configuration include importing library information from L2 and properly associating e-mail domains, configuring ticket types and categories, and setting up SWAN agent profiles. Configuration priorities before launch include configuring a fully-featured service catalog for member staff to use as a primary means of reporting issues and requesting services (almost complete), setting up the ability to associate vendors and services with the libraries who use them (50% complete), and setting up ticket workflows (pending).

Following configuration, we will need to train SWAN staff on the tool and create training materials and orientation sessions for member staff. With configuration taking place on an unpredictable timeline, we have yet to schedule when the final steps will take place, but that task is also a priority for September.

User Group Updates

SWAN announced at the September Quarterly Meeting that we are making changes to our user and advisory group offerings in 2025. We aim to better focus these groups along the two tracks in which they currently reside: member staff networking and training (user groups); and collaboration, research, and problem solving (advisory groups).

To this end, we are rewriting group charters and descriptions, reconsidering details such as recordings, notes, and agendas, and also overhauling how we recruit and open the doors to participation.

We have planned an information session on September 18th to inform members about these changes, with a recording to be made available for those who cannot attend. While we are discontinuing a couple of our less-attended groups and replacing them with one-time events or discussion opportunities, most of our user and advisory group offerings will continue into 2025 under different names. We will release specific schedules and calls for participants in October.

Symphony 4.1 Upgrade

After the aborted upgrade attempt last month, our Production server was successfully upgraded to Symphony 4.1 on Thursday, July 18. The refined installation script SirsiDynix used on Test worked without incident on Production or downtime for member libraries.

The only minor issue we discovered prior to go-live was that, due to the time that had passed between our preparation and installation, SirsiDynix had released a minor version update. While insignificant, this was causing a mismatch error with our client and the newly updated Test server. Fortunately, the software we use for building the SWAN installers makes updating and recompiling the installer very easy – but it's something for us to note for the next upgrade to keep the timeline tight.

Security Initiatives

With our current Panda/WatchGuard antivirus software license expiring this fall, we are preparing to deploy Microsoft Defender for Endpoint. This also involves registering devices with Intune, Microsoft's loud-based device management. ITSS have been running Defender throughout the summer and expanded the roll-out to the management team in July. We anticipate having staff fully migrated by late September.

Cataloging Library Update

River Grove Public Library became a Cataloging Library bringing our total Cataloging Library count to 19 libraries. This will assist the Bibliographic Services greatly in having another library cataloging precat records.

Group Purchases

Gale Presents: Udemy

Olivia worked closely with Gale and RAILS to negotiate a deeper discount for Udemy, an online learning and job skills platform. Gale originally approached Olivia about a discount for SWAN, but over the course of discussions it became clear that the best route would be to work to increase the RAILS discount and participation in both SWAN and RAILS. Further information was presented at the September Quarterly meeting and is available on the SWAN support site.

External Collaboration & Partnerships

Meetings represent formal project-based meetings with vendors and collaboration projects within the larger library community.

Scheduled Maintenance

The Bibliographic Services and ITSS teams finished loading the bi-annual Authority File records into the database that is received from MARCIVE. This file contains updated, new, and deleted authority headings and requires rebuilds on the Authority and Authority Thesauri indexes in Symphony. Taking advantage of the July 4th holiday, we began the rebuild process after libraries closed on Wednesday, July 3rd. The reindexing went very smoothly, concluding prior to 9AM on July 4th.

Outage tracking

While there were no measurable outages in July, there were two unplanned service outages in August.

On the afternoon of Thursday, August 1st, an API call unexpectedly spawned excess queries. This caused the WorkStation server to crash, closing WorkFlows sessions without warning. The issue was quickly identified and rectified, with the outage lasting less than 20 minutes.

Around 2PM on Tuesday, August 27th, we were alerted to a high load average on the Production server. SirsiDynix support was contacted, as the root cause was not immediately apparent. After some investigation, it was determined that our SIP service was being overrun with connection requests. For several years, we've had a script running on the server that monitors the SIP connections and resets the service when utilization reaches 92%. Unfortunately, the connection requests were coming in so quickly, the script couldn't keep up with them.

It was determined that the SIP port used by Hoopla was generating these requests. Hoopla access was blocked at our firewall and the Production server load came back down. Once the problem was isolated, Hoopla support was contacted and began investigating from their side. They were able to determine that a configuration parameter in the Addison profile was requesting thousands of connections. Hoopla support blocked Addison on their side while they continued to investigate. This allowed us to re-enable Hoopla access to 65 libraries the same day. Hoopla support had Addison's connection fixed and back online by 1PM the following day.

Support Site

SWAN staff are wrapping up our rolling content audit, with the final segment focusing on documentation in the Discovery, E-resources, and Technology & IT areas.

Tara developed additional features on the support site to better present information about our user groups and meetings, in anticipation of the upcoming changes to user groups and posting our 2025 meeting schedule in October.

Training Modules & Recordings

Learning Management System (SWAN Online Learning)

We added 10 new users in July and 16 new users in August to the SWAN Online Learning management system.

Crystal Vela and Samantha Dietel completed two-day, in-person training sessions on the Articulate software platform that we use to build out our courses. This was an opportunity for Crystal to establish a stronger baseline in the tool to support it as product lead, and Sam will be taking over Claudia Nickson's prior role as a primary course developer in the arenas of cataloging and acquisitions.

On-site Training and Consultation

Circulation Mentor Program

We have completed one full year of the Circulation Mentor Program, and we have included a one-year review in this report.

OpenAthens

Database Link Audit

The OpenAthens database link audit is complete! Olivia reviewed database links for every SWAN library, a massive undertaking that will ensure that libraries are using OpenAthens for every resource possible. As browsers pursue changes to IP-based authentication methods, using OpenAthens will ensure libraries can provide uninterrupted access to databases. Going forward, we will discuss with our user groups if it would be beneficial to conduct this audit on a regular basis.

Illinois State Library E-Resource Program

Oliva compiled the links for the Illinois State Library EBSCO databases and provided to the SWAN membership, saving them the effort of contacting ESBCO directly via phone as directed by the ISL. Authentication for all SWAN libraries' databases, provided through the Illinois State Library or through the RAILS Flagship pacakage, is through OpenAthens.

We are still awaiting information from the ISL on authentication to databases for patrons outside of SWAN; currently, the planned GeoIP authentication is not working. The ISL plans to create a web page with access information, but that website is not live yet. The ISL is offering two webinars in September.

Staff Updates and Development

Staffing Updates

Bibliographic Services Consultant

After eight years, Claudia Nickson left SWAN in July to take a cataloging job at the Library of Congress. She was a valuable member of the Bibliographic Services Team and we wish her well in her new position.

The Bibliographic Services Team has hired a new Bibliographic Services Consultation to replace Claudia Nickson, who left the organization earlier this year. Lucas McKeever will begin employment at SWAN on Monday, September 23rd. He comes from a background as a leader in Technical Services departments in SWAN libraries, having worked at Elmwood Park Public Library and more recently as Head of Technical Services at Downers Grove Public Library.

Networking & Security Administrator

We have also made changes to the Networking Administrator job description that has been empty for a number of months. The job title has been changed to Networking and Security Administrator, reflecting an emphasis on cyber security and working with our disaster recovery and incident response partner, ArcticWolf. To balance the additional responsibilities, we eliminated several responsibilities concerning development. We sent the description to HR Source for grading, and it wound up in the same job tier as before, alongside our consultant-level roles.

We plan to post this job in the coming weeks with the goal of hiring for the position before the winter holidays.

Consultant, Training & Development

We have also made changes to Crystal Vela's job description in response to her expressed desire to take on more of a leadership role in staff training and our internal need for such a role. Crystal's new title is Consultant, Training & Development. She will focus on identifying and fulfilling training needs of our member libraries; evaluating our training platforms including the support site, learning management software, YouTube, and Zoom consultations; coordinating site visits and in-service days; and taking lead on our documentation maintenance and review.

We are excited for her to take on this role. A coordinated, top-down approach to SWAN's training strategy has been needed. Crystal will continue to fulfill her role leading our Circulation groups, but we have re-assigned some of her job responsibilities to other staff.

In addition to the job title change, Crystal has been named the ALA Learning Roundtable (LearnRT) liaison to the ALA Committee on Professional Ethics (COPE). This role brings ethical questions from LearnRT to COPE and reports back. Recent COPE topics have included the Intellectual Freedom Manual Style Guide and enforcement of the Code of Ethics.

Maintenance

Automatic Monthly Patron Record Removal

In July and August, we purged 12,351 inactive patrons from the database.

So far in 2024, there have been 375,461 patrons active in SWAN. Coupled with 2023 last-active users (128,976) this represents 54% of the total patron database. Since January 1, 2020, 81% of the total patron database has been active. As we continue to update and remove inactive users, the active percentage of patrons continues to increase. SWAN recommends purging all patron records with last activity date prior to 9/1/2014 regardless of outstanding bills.

MessageBee Statistics

There was a significant increase in MessageBee SMS failures during a three-week period between late-July and mid-August. These messages appear to have been rejected by the carrier. Rob Klaus from MessageBee was able to confirm this to have been the root cause of the increase in failed SMS messages. MessageBee will also be more proactive about notifying customers when these issues are encountered.

Appendix: Statistics

Cataloging & Collections

Cataloging statistics highlight the shared bibliographic database of physical materials maintained by our SWAN libraries and SWAN centralized cataloging staff.

OCLC Cataloging Counts

Counts do not include seventeen cataloging libraries. Original cataloging counts are new records created for SWAN and added to the OCLC WorldCat database. Copy cataloging counts are records downloaded from OCLC and added to SWAN's bibliographic database.

Items Added in 2024

In July and August, 91,026 new items were added to our database, including 12,449 new catalog records. Nearly 3,000 records were overlaid by SWAN cataloging staff with cataloging libraries contributing at varying levels.

Circulation

Monthly total comparison since 2019

In July and August, we had 737,640 and 632,117 systemwide circulations respectively, still in close proximity to prior year's numbers.

This chart shows overall circulation counts in 2019, 2023, and this year for comparison.

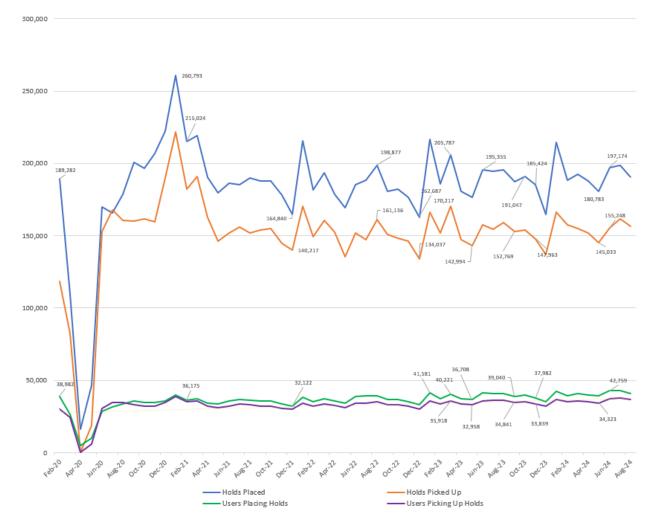

SWAN staff are still working on a version of these circulation statistics reports that will provide an oncall analysis of individual libraries' circulation activity over time.

Holds

Holds Placement & Pick-up

The number of patrons placing holds was 42,805 in July and 40,862 in August, with 389,364 combined total holds placed. We are still unable to distinguish between holds placed in Aspen versus LiDA, though ByWater Solutions is aware this is a priority for us.

Interlibrary Loan & Resource Sharing

Interlibrary loan checkouts between SWAN members was 108,492 in July and 109,136 in August in June, for 16% and 18% of total checkouts.

Reciprocal borrowing between SWAN libraries totaled another 15-16% of total checkouts at 105,673 and 99,690 checkouts. Non-SWAN reciprocal borrowing made up another 3% of checkouts as usual.

OCLC Worldwide Resource Sharing

Our combined OCLC interlibrary loan statistics show that SWAN was again a net lender in July and August by a ratio of 2 items lend for each item borrowed. These months, we lent 5,883 items and 28 copies and borrowed 2,827 items and 42 copies.

Re: Disposing SWAN office furniture assets

Donate/sell to libraries

The RAILS Classifieds page is a good way to reach a large number of libraries. Items posted by SWAN will be prioritized to SWAN member libraries on a first come first served basis. I alerted libraries via SWANcom that SWAN will begin listing items on the classifieds page, and to subscribe to the email alerts when any items are posted.

Donate to SWAN employees

Some employees have expressed interest in the office chairs for home use. There are also standing desks that will no longer be needed. I recommend using a lottery system for staff to see how many of these items will be donated to staff, and then have the remaining items posted on RAILS Classifieds.

Donations to schools

Office supplies no longer needed by SWAN will be donated to school districts.

Moving company disposal

The moving company quotations provided a $5,000 add-on fee to dispose of office furniture not going to the new location. Our goal is to have as much furniture donated or disposed of prior to the move.

Items available

The following list of items is the SWAN furniture detailing what will be disposed.
